THE ITTY BITTY EAGLE

Once upon a time...
There was an Itty Bitty Eagle.
The Itty Bitty Eagle
Lived in an Itty Bitty Nest!

The Itty Bitty Nest
Rest
In an Itty Bitty Tree!
WHEE!

What fun
That must be
To live in
An Itty Bitty Tree!

The other eagles
Lived way up high.
Their trees were tall
And reached the sky!

Most of the eagles
That lived high in the air
Paid no attention
To Itty Bitty Eagle
Living way down there.

Some of the eagles
Would say out loud,
“Your nest is low!
“Come join the crowd!”

Itty Bitty Eagle
Soon felt bad.
For the longest time
Her wings would sag.

As she looked up
Itty Bitty Eagle could see
The large, beautiful nests
Way high in a tree.

“I am sure their nests
“Are better than mine.
“I am sure their nests
“Are really fine.”

“They are bigger
“And way up high.
“I am going to bed.
“And hope I don’t cry!”

Itty Bitty Eagle
Had a dream that night.
A wise old owl
Said to her,
“You might...”

“Enjoy what you have,
“A nest called home.
“A place you can stay,
“A place of your own.”

“Bigger is not better,
“Nor is higher, HOO!
“What counts is how you feel,
“And the good things you do!”

Now Itty Bitty Eagle
Sits proudly in his nest.
She knows that Hers
Is as good as the rest!

And she lived happily ever after...

LESSON PLAN

Where was the Itty Bitty Eagles home, the nest, built?

Where was the other eagles' nests built?

How did Itty Bitty Eagle feel about the other nests being higher?

Name some of the rhyming words in the story...

Who helped the Itty Bitty Eagle like her nest?

Have you ever liked something else that others had, and it turned out no better than yours?
